SEPT. SUNDAY 14 1919

13th after Trinity

Very cold bath with Lady Sackville's lime scent like a lemon soda water. Lay about most of morning while G. wrote. Short walk to give Pook a bath. After lunch - nap. After tea played croquet Marguerite Carter & I badly beaten by Mrs Hoare and Aunt Edith. Evening sang hymns in Aunt E's room.

Cool day slightly
misty & partly clearing Measured for
paving court &
calculated required
number of stones.
So all morning went –
Disappointed because no
croquet & no long walk
Disgruntled short walk
just before lunch.
After lunch sat in kitchen
with Cora cutting up Sam's dinner and talking
of violent discussion I
had had with Aunt E.
at lunch about D'Annunzio
Nap. After tea croquet
without G. who wrote
or studied and agonized
because Marguerite &
I were badly beaten
by Maude Sturdy & Aunt E.

SEPT. TUESDAY 16 ☾ 1919

Family took Miss Hody to train in Arundel.
G. & I. walked to our Devils Punch Bowl and back through wood picking Autumn violets. Left both dogs at home because they are lame from clay in their feet. After lunch I heard from office that Louis Blair has borrowed £3. from Mr Grimes, & Mother heard from Aunt Mary that Louis is not to be trusted.
I rested in clothes, tired of going to bed every afternoon. After tea Aunt Edith tried to make G & I play croquet on opposite sides. Painful situation but we carried our point & G & I played against Aunt E & Marguerite being beating them. Terrible strain. Aunt E all right at dinner

W. Mr Marchant - bad headache

1919 WEDNESDAY 17 SEPT.

Ember Day

W. Manners.
Washed the dogs paws
which were so
caked with clay
that they were
quite lame.
Then G. & I walked
round fields by Bury Ferry and saw
fat bullocks.
After lunch rested
out of doors in Cottage Court where Cora lies in the morning
Tea in Elysia as usual. Beautiful
warm still day
growing cold
in the evening.
After dinner G & I
sat in our room
with a fire, &

Barratt on guard. G. arrived wi. Mother & Aunt Mary. G's — fell off & in confusion some other people got into our compartment & would not leave. Harata did not appear but I finally found her in another compartment so let other people stay with us in ours. At L'pool drove in 4 wheeler to boat 2 miles away. Found Ada. Tea w. Mother. W. Mrs Cook about return passage. After dinner sat in G's cabin un packed

R.M.S. Baltic

2nd in Advent

Slept well. C. & Horatio had breakfast in bed but G & I had a nice breakfast in salon & walked on deck. Joined by Catherine & later by H. Sat in our chairs & had chicken broth.

H told us that Ada had told her maid that she was paying her passage and need not do anything for Gladys! We really cannot take her to Lexington.

At 12 the boat began to roll the least bit and G. had to retire to her cabin. I sat with her unpacking & writing the diary. C. H. & I lunched in salon. Brought G. lunch of strong things ham pickles olives sardines & champagne.

Nap in cabin with G. & tea. Dressed for dinner. Evening in cabin with G.

1919 MONDAY 8 DEC.

Seemed calm and tried without success to persuade G to get up. She lay on sofa all day but ate her meals fairly well. Weather (greatly) rougher. Walked on deck with Horatio. Go Horatio up all day Nap in Cabin. & tea wi. G. After dinner looked at C's hats. Ada has been telling Horatio's maid that she is paying her own passage and need not do anything for G! She does nothing but stick her head in the door once or twice a day and asks if she can do anything we always say no.

DEC. TUESDAY 9 1919

Roughest night. G. miserable. lay on sofa all day. I fed her at meals Luncheon she had before I went down. Walked a little with Horatio & C. After lunch talked with Horatio on deck. C. joined us and tea. G. sent for me. Helped her with her tea and sat with her. Pretty rough sea but boat very steady considering. After dinner sat in smoking room, while they auctioned pool for ships run. Talked to Marrow a little. He knows Hely Hutchinson on board. Helped G to bed.

Storm and rough sea. G. wretched. W. deary w. Mrs Adams, Davis, Lady de la Warr. Came down & sat w. G. Gave her lunch. Horatio had lunch on deck. C & I had lunch in saloon. C. went to see Ada who stayed in bed today with a headache she said, not sea-sickness. Sat on deck closed in with tarpaulins. Cold & very rough sea. Came down & sat w. G. gave her champagne & biscuits instead of tea. Read Thurstons "World of Wonderful Reality." Pretty thin stuff. C. came & sat with us. G. too ill to eat dinner. H gone to bed. C. & I dined in saloon. Fed G on Pistachio ice. Sat in smoking room & finished Thurston's "World"

A little less rough. Sat with G. who felt much better, I think because of medicine we both took last night. Sat w. G. & Horatio on deck, noticed Lady George Cholmondeley looked like a big hard 'kettle'. H. lunch on deck. Gave G. her lunch then E. & I lunch downstairs. After lunch nap on deck. Then sat w. G. who felt well enough to talk. Tea with her C. sat with us. Dressed & gave G. dinner During C. & H. sat with us. Weather rougher

1919 FRIDAY 12 DEC.
